

Benny Bear's Big Blue Ball

By Einav Momi Ben Shushan and Chen Tzafir

Look at Benny Bear! He is in his bright, sunny backyard. Benny has something very special. It is a big, vibrant blue ball. Benny loves his ball very much.

Boing, boing, boing! Benny bounces the ball on the soft grass. The ball goes up and the ball goes down. Benny laughs as he plays.

Oh no! The ball rolls away. It rolls past the yellow sun-flowers. It rolls toward the tall wooden fence. Benny trots after it as fast as he can.

Who is hiding behind the flowers? It is Clover the bunny! Clover has long ears and a little pink nose. She sees Benny and his big blue ball.

Clover wants to play too. She gives the ball a gentle nudge with her nose. The ball rolls back to Benny. Roll, ball, roll!

Benny throws the ball high into the bright sky. He looks up and sees two yellow butterflies fluttering near the fence. They are dancing in the air.

The ball comes back down. Benny reaches up high. He wants to catch the big blue ball before it hits the ground.

Clover jumps high into the air! She is a very good jumper. She tries to help Benny catch the ball.

The sun begins to set, turning the sky orange and pink. Benny and Clover are tired from playing. They sit together and rest. Goodnight, Benny. Goodnight, Clover.
